Senior Compliance Manager, Global Licensing

Description

The Compliance function at Okcoin is responsible for the overall compliance culture at the company. We're a team of risk-minded problem solvers who advise the business on the company's regulatory obligations and enterprise risk.

Its Global Licensing team, in particular, is responsible for all expansionary efforts into new and emerging markets, with a specific focus on licensing strategy and roadmap.

Responsibilities

- Manage the Global Licensing process , including researching and reviewing application requirements, preparing license application forms, applying for licenses, and communicating with various stakeholders (e.g. management, regulators, vendors, etc).
- Developing policies, procedures, and guidelines to ensure compliance with new licensing application requirements.
- Communicate our compliance framework to all relevant stakeholders (internal and external).
- Engaging cross-functionally (with groups such as Data, Engineering, Finance, Legal, Product, and Risk) to establish a thoughtful strategic and tactical approach to our licensing applications and related processes.
- Assist with special projects as needed, with the ability to work in a fast-paced, ever-changing environment.

Qualifications

- 4+ years of experience in compliance within financial services, FinTech or cryptocurrency industries
- Experienced in international licensing, including regulator communications and oversight of applications.
- Strong analytical and research skills, and desire to create documentation and reporting
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent practical experience
- Proven ability to work within and meet deadlines in a fast-paced environment

Hiring organization

Okcoin

Okcoin is one of the world's largest and fastest growing cryptocurrency exchanges. Okcoin helps millions of people buy and sell bitcoin, ethereum, miamicoins and many other crypto assets every day — but its work is a whole lot more than that: Okcoin is building an inclusive future of finance. A future that opens new opportunities to learn financial literacy, store value, and build wealth for everyone.
